

Legislation Text

File #: REP 17-085, Version: 1

Summary of Design Review Process

Details: The Design Review Committee reviews specific development proposals for compliance with the City's adopted principles and guidelines. Reviews are typically required for new commercial buildings, mixed use and multi-family developments and addresses design elements such as building materials, orientation, landscaping, massing and compatibility with surrounding areas.

Presenter: Phil Bourquin, Community Development Director